

Hertsmere Council's Last Chance To Decide

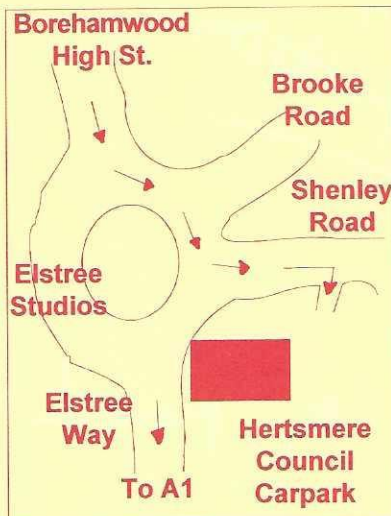

Will they approve of keeping the Hare Krishna Temple
(Watford) open with the new access?
Will they prosecute the temple and the 20,000 pilgrims who worshipped there at Janmashtami?

*If you want to know the answers.....
There's only one place to be.....*

On Wednesday
19th October 1994

Hertsmere Council offices
Elstree Way (End of main street) in Borehamwood, Herts.
6.00 p.m. onwards

*Did you attend Janmashtami at Bhaktivedanta Manor this year?
Did you worship there?*

If so, Hertsmere officers are recommending that you and the temple be prosecuted for criminal activities.

But the decision will be made by the full council on 19th October.

Isn't this madness?

Lets all be there to let them hear our views. Hindus won't be treated like this.

Our Temple must stay open!
